A bid may be automatically rejected if it is:

1. Unreasonable in Price: A bid is unreasonable in price, if a) the bid price when compared with price submissions of other prospective bidders, prior contract prices, and/or prices available on the open market is grossly unbalanced, or b) the bid is determined by the HPHA to be unreasonable in price, including the total bid price and unit prices.

2. Materially unbalanced: A bid is materially unbalanced, if a) there is a reasonable doubt that the bid would result in the lowest overall cost, even though it is the lowest bid, or b) the bid is so grossly unbalanced that its acceptance would be tantamount to allowing an advance payment. An example of a materially unbalanced bid is one where the bid is set at a very high price for the first item and subsequent items are set at extremely low prices.

All bid offers submitted not using the prescribed Bid Offer Form as provided in this IFB or does not conform to the bid submission instructions shall be determined non-responsive.

A bidder is not required to submit a bid for all groups, however, a bidder shall submit a unit bid price for all services within a group and complete the Bid Offer Form in its entirety to be considered responsive; and
2. In the case of a tie, award shall be made to the current service provider provided that it is one of the tied bidders and whose performance under the current contract indicates that the current service provider is responsible. If the current service provider is not a tied bidder, award shall be determined by the flip of a coin or some other random means of selection.

The Contract awarded resulting from this solicitation is subject to the approval of the Department of the Attorney General and other approvals as required by the statutes, regulations, rules, orders or other directives.

Services shall not be undertaken by the Successful Bidder until receipt of the HPHA's issuance of the Notice to Proceed.
